GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN)

Kicks at Kearney.

NEW YORK, Aug 15—The Herald's editorial says Kearney is unfortunate Some of the papers are advising him to go west and now comes Butler and Justus Schwab and both cut him adrift Schwab thinks Kearney is not much better than a politician "I had been led to believe that he would devote his attention to the interests of the working men when he came east but it seems he is training with Butler" says the great communist Butler, on his part will have nothing to do with Kearney "Kearney is not indorsed by me" he says "I have nothing whatever to do with him" Considering that Mr Kearney can afford only two shirt collars per week as he remarked the other evening in a public speech, this is rather hard on him If he is to be deserted by all his friends there will remain nothing for him to do except perhaps to crowd into Butler's famous hole in the sky

Dissatisfied Red Men.

Spotted Tail's Indians who have reached a point 75 miles from the Missouri river, on their march to the Rosebud, have there halted, and will remain in camp about a month They are becoming very much dissatisfied, and many of them are seriously considering the propriety of returning to the river. It is a well known fact that at least two thirds of these Indians were opposed to the move now in progress They were satisfied to remain at the old Ponca Agency which furnishes all the requirements of a permanent home for these Indians The move was arranged through the influence of a few leading chiefs headed by Spotted Tail, and that influence was purchased by traders and freighters for a few hundred dollars given to those chiefs. Spotted Tail is one of the most avaricious red men on the list, and is governed entirely in his actions by the price paid for his influence with his followers. A prominent missionary in the Indian country says that with $500 he could have purchased the consent of the ruling chiefs to remain upon the river, and that all their people would have cheerfully acquiesced in the arrangement It is reported by runners from Spotted Tail's camp that about a thousand of these Indians have already cut loose from the main body and gone on excursions of their own. There is a strong probability that a majority of Spotted Tail's Indians will come back to the river before the snow flies

Yellow Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug 14—New cases 78, Deaths 17

The extraordinary increase of new cases of yellow fever reported by the board of health up to noon to day has been the all absorbing topic of conversation this afternoon Reporters sought in vain for an explanation A true report includes two days from the Charity hospital, but that only adds seven or eight cases which should have been reported and leaves 126 or 127 cases that have occurred during the past 24 hours So far but few cases have occurred in the 3d or 5th districts Of the deaths reported 9 are under 20 years Of these six were natives of New Orleans

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 15—There is considerable excitement over the arrival of the tow boat John D Porter this afternoon, with several cases of yellow fever on board The health officer boarded her several miles below Lawrenceburg and found the crew in a disabled condition The boat will not be permitted to land here, and no one allowed to go near her except two physicians, who will accompany her to Pittsburg

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION

New York Aug 1[illegible]

John A Leete of New Orleans continued his testimony before the Potter investigating committee to day He said

When Anderson called on me after coming from East Feliciana he told me he had arrived out the programme as was well understood between Kellogg Anderson and myself The plan was to keep colored Republicans from voting Each man had a programme of his own It was thought best to exclude the colored Republican votes so that the returning board could throw out the whole Democratic vote of the parish if necessary The Republican party was demoralized there and would have been beaten Anderson went back to East Feliciana and a peaceable election was held Anderson told me that he did not mean to make any protest until he found out how the land lay Kellogg urged me to do what I could to get Anderson to make a protest The attention of the whole country was being concentrated on Louisiana and Kellogg said it was highly important to get a protest out of Anderson before the time of Tilden's emissaries arrival there and bought him up I advised Anderson not to make any protest at all Anderson and I agreed that the Republican ticket was defeated and we were sorry for Hayes but glad that Packard was defeated

We agreed however that though defeated the Republican party would get in In an interview with Kellogg he said that no matter what Anderson would do he would count the state in for Hayes We agreed with Kellogg to count in Hayes I knew very well that Sherman and the visiting statesman had come down there to steal the state I knew they were after the Anderson protest so that after committing himself he could not go over to the Democrats without perjuring himself There was a glorious prospect for Anderson, and I knew that he could get anything he demanded for his protest which would cause the vote of East Feliciana for Tilden to be thrown out I think that even without Anderson's protest they would have thrown out the vote

They would manufacture a lot of affidavits just for moral appearance you know Kellogg wanted me to manufacture affidavits but I refused. I never did wrong in my life, and sacrificed many opportunities to keep within the dictates of my conscience [Great laughter] I thought by working Anderson I should get enough evidence out of him to expose the whole thing and make a sensation and my fortune I can't say what I would have done if some one had offered me $100 000 to keep quiet, and the high moral statesmen had come pressing around me to keep my mouth shut [Laughter] When Anderson told me that he had signed the protest and got no money for it, I told him the visiting statesmen and Kellogg would leave him in the mud I told him if he held out with his protests he could get documents from those visiting statesmen that would make them his slaves for the remainder of their political lives About this time Anderson began jumping around and threatening to whip Pitkin and Kellogg and everybody else Kellogg and others called on me one day and said, "Come, old fellow I want to introduce you to the visiting statesmen" The statesmen admired the hall in the naval office and then they edged toward the affidavit mill I told Kellogg I would not go with such a lot of frauds Was afraid if I met them they might get something out of me My desk in the custom house was a sort of political Mecca where all the Louisiana statesmen congregated

Anderson told me he and Weber had an interview with Sherman and that Sherman had promised them everything I told Anderson he was an unmitigated lunatic to believe in anything but a written contract He said he was promised the naval office and I told him he would never get it and he hasn't [Laughter] Another day he called on me and said "I've got it" I replied what have you got? More taffy? He said, no sir I've got them fixed He pulled out a letter and said it was from John Sherman and was a letter giving him the naval office He showed me John Sherman's name at the foot of the letter but refused to show the remainder of the letter I had a talk with Darrell and Kellogg about that letter Kellogg said the letter was only a general one and non-committal Kellogg and I considered the count of votes finished before it was begun [Laughter] I also spoke with Darrell about the Sherman letter He said it gave no grip to Anderson on the statesmen They had a hold on him however on his protest If he had opened his mouth for the Democrats they could produce his sworn protest and have him up for perjury The bull dozers were plentiful and would shoot a white man or a black man to get an office E C Butler Anderson's clerk was one of these I had a difficulty with him in Vermillion parish and tried to kill him but failed He's dead now, however Warmouth admitted that the state would be lost by 25 000 votes Warmouth said to me, confidentially "These visiting statesmen are a lot of old frauds and have come down here to steal the state, and they will steal it too

After some further testimony of like character, the witness was cross examined by Gen Butler He said he was intimately acquainted with all the politicians of Louisiana and in his judgment they were the most complete set of rascals he ever met that Cassanave, of the returning board was the honestest of the lot Witness was then questioned as to his standard of honesty and becoming a little nettled at the manner of questioning, said he proposed answering when, how and where he chose

Halstead Explains Roberts' Testimony.

NEW YORK Aug 16—Murat Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial sailed for Europe to day in the steamship Suevia In conversation with a reporter of the Tribune Halstead has made the testimony of Col Roberts of New Orleans before the Potter committee in so far as it related to him the subject of comment and explanation

Reporter—Did Lamar say anything or indicate in any way that there were any negotiations on foot looking to an arrangement by which Gov Hayes was to be seated as president

A—There was nothing of the kind suggested or thought of Lamar was simply apprehensive as to the condition of the country knew the critical state of affairs in Louisiana perfectly and said that without doubt there was imminent danger that the spark to kindle the fire would be very apt to be struck right there In order to cheer him up I loaned him as he went away both of Ingersoll's pious lectures on the gods

Speaking of the letter introducing Colonel Roberts to President Hayes Mr Halstead says there was nothing in the letter that would promote the happiness of Gen Butler and if the letter was sealed it was simply from force of habit of sealing letters as soon as they are written The letter told President Hayes the bearer was Col Roberts of New Orleans, who had dispatches giving the Democratic view of the state of the case in Louisiana which had been appearing during several weeks in the Commercial and he would find it desirable to talk with him and get inside of Louisiana politics That was the whole of the letter

Reporter—Was there anything in the letter [illegible] bargain or arrangement [illegible] was authorized to say or do anything in behalf of [illegible]

Mr Halstead Nothing of the kind I [illegible] heard of any such thing Roberts [illegible] both night and [illegible] [illegible] Mr Hayes [illegible] [illegible] south who had [illegible] [illegible] undisputed [illegible]

THE INDIAN RAID IN UMATILLA

A GENERAL ACCOUNT OF THE DOINGS OF THE INDIANS—FELICITY AND TREACHERY OF A PORTION OF THE UMATILLAS—HOW THEY WENT IN AND BACKED OUT—WHAT THE PROGRAMME WAS AND HOW IT FAILED

[From the Pendleton East Oregonian]

The cruel Indian outbreak in Umatilla county is now over Everything has again resumed its usual quietude but the effect of the trouble can be seen on every hand Business of every kind is stagnated Stock scattered from one end of the land to the other Farms are broken up and scattered Debts have been left unpaid till it is now next to impossible for them to be paid in many instances general apathy seems to have taken possession of everything and dullness reigns supreme Now is the time to look calmly at our difficulties and ascertain the cause and see if we can not suggest a remedy The policy of the government of the United States in its treatment of the Indians has never been a success while our British neighbor on the north of us has successfully it seems to us, solved the Indian question Their policy is to treat the Indian just as they do others, regard him in his individual capacity and pay no attention whatever to his tribal relation never recognizing the Indians as a nationality to be treated with as a nation When an Indian violates the law he is held amenable just as any other person and he is compelled to work, steal or starve In this way they manage the Indian, and as a result of their policy they never have any Indian troubles We have undoubtedly tried our peace policy long enough Let the government now make a change of some kind Let's try the policy of our neighbor and see the result The Indians are all treacherous that is a part of their very nature They take advantage of every opportunity to carry out their treacherous designs That being his nature just as long as he is recognized and countenanced as a nation, capable of being treated with just so long may we expect him when opportunity offers to go on the war path This has been fully demonstrated in our present troubles The annuities for these Umatilla Indians cease next year After that they get nothing from the government, but must rely on their own exertions for sustenance This called for some plan to supply their demands other than by manual labor They looked around them, remembered the policy of government in regard to other Indian tribes, and found that all that was necessary for them to do was to go on the war path, and the government to pacify them would renew their supplies A general counsel of all the tribes on this northwest coast was held and a plan of action agreed upon. The Bannacks started off, came by the Malheur Agency, picked up all the renegades, Piutes and Snakes, got all the Malheurs, came on to Canyon City and were there reinforced by a few Warm Springs and the programme was to meet the Columbias in John Day's valley to have them pilot them through to this agency The programme was well arranged and in the main carried out Quite a number of the Umatillas proper went over to John Day's and met the hostiles and piloted them into Camas Prairie, where Cornoyer said he saw them fighting on the 2d day of July—40 of the Umatillas holding in check 800 to 1 000 of the hostiles! It was here they were holding their counsels instead of fighting The Umatillas and Columbia river Indians keeping a little in advance of the open hostiles, frightening the settlers out of the country and robbing and plundering their houses as they came along One was killed in Camas Prairie, this caused a disturbance of their programme The Columbias killed a few settlers and herders A battle was fought at Willow Springs on July 6th another at Beasley's mill on the 8th, the Indians pushing forward all the time in the direction of this agency On the 12th the hostiles were in full force near the agency Four teamsters were killed on the mountains near Cayuse station The station was plundered, George Coggan killed and Al Bunker wounded between the station and the agency, and Cornoyer and all his employees about the agency compelled to leave the agency to save themselves The Umatillas were at this time camped just in back of the agency Thirteen volunteers from Pendleton started up after Bunker who had been wounded and were fired on by Indians before they got to the agency so that the hostiles were above the agency, below the agency all around the agency mixed up with the Umatillas, camped with them and in counsel with them all time, in fact, the night before the Columbias together with Umapine and his crowd of Umatillas, had gone over to the hostiles On the morning of the 13th Miles had the fight with them Umapine took an active part in the fight against Captain Miles, and exhibited all the bravery that was exhibited by any of the Indians during the fight Cayuse station was burned during the night, and Frank Rinquet had his all consumed by fire, while LeLouskin an Indian, who had a house close by well filled with goods was not interrupted in any way During all this time the Umatillas, who pretended to be friendly to the whites, were camped in back of the agency, and although the fight of the 13th was close by and in plain view, they took no part whatever, that is those who yet pretended to be friendly The Indians were whipped and retreated back into the mountains—and now comes the secret of Umapine's treachery and the cause of Egan's death. Umapine is a brave, and has plenty of good horses He does not like the idea of looking up to anyone or of considering any one superior to him During the battle he became satisfied that the Snakes, etc, were cowards, and that they were not the fighters they represented themselves to be He also now made the discovery that they did not have the number of warriors that they had represented they had These things somewhat discouraged him and cause him to consider what he had done. While in this mood Egan ordered Umapine's horses taken and his (Egan's) men mounted on them as they were fresh and good horses Umapine was set afoot This cut him to the quick but he could say nothing but secretly resolved to be revenged

He according sent word to Captain Miles that he was sorry for what he had done and wanted to come back and renew his allegiance to the whites, and as an evidence of his sincerity he proposed to betray Egan into the hands of the soldiers This programme he carried out. Egan was betrayed and killed but it was done on account of a quarrel between him and Umapine about the latter's horses, and not on account of any love or respect Umapine had for the whites Of course after this the hostiles were enraged, and Umapine and his crowd were compelled to fly to the military for protection and he deserves no credit for what he has done During the fight with Miles on the 13th these friendlies took no part although they were well armed and well mounted and could have bagged the last hostile if they had assisted the soldiers These Indians are rich they saw that the soldiers were coming in faster than they anticipated, and if they went on with the hostiles they would lose all they had hence they concluded to come back and be good Indians again as they had taken an open active part in the murders that had committed that they supposed was known by the whites The agent takes them back with open arms and now proclaims it as a fact that they have been all right all the time

A Tiresome Chase.

From the Alta California

When Gen Howard chased Chief Joseph over an extent of country that is perfectly terrible when set down in miles and appalling from its roughness he was lampooned and criticised everywhere even receiving a reproof from the war department in one of the despatches which suggested that he would transfer his command to a younger man who might be able to move the troops with more celerity And yet when Joseph was captured it was the result of the unflagging pursuit by the general who had been made the butt of all the jokes of witty paragraphers, from Danbury to Burlington it was the chase by Howard that drove Joseph into the arms of Miles General Howard was present at the surrender but did nothing to deprive Miles of the eclat which he won by manly fighting to be sure but also by a rare stroke of good luck Gen Howard is again in the position of being obliged to fight a flying enemy an enemy that subsists on the country and makes every settler a quartermaster to supply fresh horses he is again taunted for not showing more victories or producing more scalps when the fact is the Indians avoid battle whenever the troops get near them and start off on a new trial with a perfect knowledge of the country and the places where they can exchange their jaded steeds Gen Howard at last advices was at Boise City with unfaltering determination to overtake the savages and punish them before they can surrender but the fates have been against him and he has not yet been able to produce the results which the public clamor for and the savages are sneaking in to give up their arms and draw their regular rations

BAKER CITY CORRESPONDENCE

A CROWL ABOUT PRETTY MUCH EVERYBODY AND EVERYTHING

BAKER CITY, Aug 10 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The Bedrock Democrat has struck 'ile Ever since its initial number there has graced its columns a brazen advertisement "Assay Office," In other words "Banking House of Jas W Virtue" Well, during the recent fervent political tussle Bro Shepherd, of the Bedrock failed to get the nomination for state printer, and J W V is said to have conspicuously worked against him, and "Shep" in payment of that "work" went against A H Brown for state treasurer, "Tony" for state printer and part of the Baker county ticket and the result is that the columns of the Bedrock Democrat are no longer embellished with the aforesaid words "Assay Office, or Banking House of James W Virtue" So you see the house of the faithful is divided against itself And Oh! my countrymen! do not I beseech you, do not anticipate the result What a spectacle! A "bank" like ours waging war against a country newspaper!

THE FEDERAL OFFICES

Of this state have done as much to weaken and defeat the Republican cause in Oregon as any other power How is this you ask? Well, at a guess there has been eight or ten men arrested in this county and hauled down to Portland, several of them innocently, and others on the most technical violation of the United States laws, heretofore, it has been utterly impossible for the people of this valley to live here without taking their wood from the public domain. For doing this, several of our citizens have been arrested and taken to Portland for cutting wood on the public lands of the United States True, they were not convicted, but the expenses of a lawyer and the expenses of a return trip cost many months of labor to the poor man One man, L W Nelson was fined for cutting timber off of his mining claim, and it was conceded in the trial that this very act was absolutely necessary to enable him to work it properly! Again, there are quite a number of men in Eastern Oregon who have become wealthy by cutting timber off of the public land of the United States—and do you suppose one of them has been arrested? Not one single one! I can name them in Baker, Union and Umatilla counties. These are facts, and politically speaking, can you ask the man to lick the hand that smites him!

Another thing I charge—some of the federal office holders in Portland have been informed of these facts and they have knowingly pounced on the poor and let the rich go free And these are the gentlemen that run our state conventions and ask the people to come up to the rack and "vote the ticket" The way politics have been run in this state the past five years the wonder is the Republicans have elected a single man The temper of the people of Oregon is not in consonance with "personal" politics A H Brown, Tony Noltner, Jas W Virtue, the federal ring-H K Hines & Co, had all better take notice just as well now as to wait!

INDIAN WAR NOTES

Perhaps items on this subject are becoming stale Have not heard of a man being killed nor an "Injun" captured in a week in these parts This is going very slow with a thousand or more troops in the field, scouts out in every direction, Indian allies in the field, and so on! The latest is that the Malheur agency Indians having heard that W V Rinehart had resigned, were willing to come to terms until next spring Their stock of ammunition is short, too, and it is hard to get it from Utah just now History repeats itself First a pow wow then a "solemn" treaty then comfortable lodgings and homes for the hostiles, and then peace for a short season, then an incompetent agent, then another outbreak with all its heart sickening details—bloody murder robbery and forgiveness. Then inefficient generals and imbecile governors. The result of all of which is that Uncle Sam pays a big bill the defenseless pioneer who takes his life in his hand to enrich the coffers of the nation by bettering his own condition, is robbed, if not murdered, and the Indian has added to his wealth of scalps, stock of horses and store of blankets and provisions, and ability to run over the country in another raid But I hold for the present It is getting awful "hot." Yours, etc,

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 16, 1878.

BUTLER'S HAPPINESS.

Butler, who has been examining witnesses before the Potter committee with a view of developing something about the alleged bargain made by Hayes and his friends with the Democrats of the south, in pursuance of which the Packard government was left without support and its friends induced to abandon it, is probably happy at last. He has drawn from Col. Roberts, of the New Orleans Times, a prominent Democratic politician who took a leading part in the business, a statement that assurances were had from the Ohio men that Packard was to be "let down easy." Roberts saw Hayes himself, and Hayes knew perfectly well that he was talking for the Democratic side. Hayes promised that there should be justice and fairness, by which it was understood, as Roberts says, that "returning board frauds had to cease." In other words, the Packard government should receive no countenance from the administration. There are those, no doubt, who think it would have sounded better for fairness and justice had not Hayes and his Ohio friends been so ready to discredit the work of the returning board in regard to Packard, while entirely willing to accept the results of its findings on the choice of electors. All this was in the air before Hayes was inaugurated; and the celebrated speech made by Blaine immediately after Hayes became president, in which it was argued that Packard had the same moral right to be governor of Louisiana that Hayes had to be president of the United States, was spoken in consequence of the thick-flying rumors already in circulation in regard to the "bargain."

Some additional facts are furnished in the recent letter published by Mr. Manton Marble, formerly editor of the New York World. This letter was prepared primarily with a view of giving a history of Mr. Tilden's opposition to the electoral commission. Tilden's plan was to force debate in the house and then in the senate; and Marble believes, as he expresses it, that "the keen bright sunlight of publicity through the long day of such a debate, would have shriveled and consumed the conspiracy, root and branch." When the plan of an electoral commission was broached and some of the Democrats in congress, especially those from the house, appeared to be disposed to look on it with favor, Hewitt telegraphed Tilden that some had already determined upon their course, and represented the danger of a collision with the executive unless some method were agreed on for counting the votes and getting an authoritative decision on the result. To this Mr. Tilden replied: "The fears of collision are exaggerated. And why surrender now? You can always surrender. That is all you have to do after being beaten." Again, he telegraphed: "If you go into a conference with your adversary and can't break off because you feel you must agree to something, you cannot negotiate at all. Unless you can break off you are not fit to negotiate. You will be beaten upon every detail." All this shows very clear discernment of the situation. But there was an exceedingly strong and hourly increasing popular sentiment in favor of some agreement that would assure the public peace. The southern members were particularly anxious that an accommodation should be reached. Politicians of the south had been sounding Hayes and his nearest friends. These last were extremely eager to get the presidency on any terms. So the south was soothed by assurances that Hayes would not try to maintain the Republican party longer in the three states, but would give the Democrats a chance to take the state governments. Events have made all these things entirely plain. Nobody doubts there was an intrigue; but all the country has long since voted the whole affair a bore.

A MOVEMENT WESTWARD.

Some, perhaps all, the land offices in Oregon and Washington show this year an increasing activity of business. But the figures furnished by the land offices of the government afford only partial data for judging what extent of new land is being occupied. A great deal of land is being disposed of by the owners of the numerous grants made for railroads and wagon roads, and many persons are occupying lands who have yet made no application for entries, in the absence of surveys. All this shows better judgment than governs those persons who linger about the cities, attend socialist meetings and clamor for bequests of greenbacks. But the amount of land taken in our section of country is no criterion of the movement of population to new lands in other parts more accessible from the great centers. In Dakota 1,243 432 acres were sold up to June 30th last, in excess of the amount sold the year preceding. In Kansas the gain in the same time was 1,356,478 acres; in Minnesota, 761,356 acres; in Nebraska, 363,268 acres; a total increase in the states and territory named of 3,724,534 acres. There were probably between six and seven million acres of public lands within their borders taken for settlement during the year. A writer in the Chicago Times makes a calculation that the lands sold in Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska and Dakota during the past year would give homesteads of average size to more than half a million people, counting an average of four persons to a family. Great numbers of people have also been going to Texas, Arkansas, Missouri and other southwestern states where lands are still offered at low prices; and the reason why our own section does not fill up more rapidly is simply that these other localities may be reached at less expense of time and money.

It is observed by the eastern press that there is now a remarkable movement from other pursuits to farming; but such a movement is by no means new in the history of this country. We are reminded that similar ones have taken place about the time of every financial revulsion or collapse. The records of the land office for the year 1838 show the enormous sum of $24,877,179 received from sales of public lands; and again after the panic of 1857 the sales were enormously increased. Production had been thrown out of balance, and it became necessary to restore the equilibrium by changing from other pursuits to those of agriculture. It is much the same way now. But the readjustment in this instance has been put off longer. Three reasons are given for it. One is that when the panic of 1873 occurred the workingmen of the country were better off than ever before. Their necessities did not force them at once into agriculture. The second reason is that they were not so well fitted for agricultural life as were the men of forty years. Most of them had no knowledge of farming and less taste for it. A third reason was that the region of good farming lands had moved much further west. Demagogues moreover had persuaded many of the workingmen that it was not necessary to attempt to do anything for themselves; and they held on, hoping vaguely for relief or better times through additional issues of greenbacks. But now it is manifest that large numbers are giving up the delusion and are betaking themselves to the public lands.

BOARD OF TRADE REPORT.

The report of the officers of the board of trade is a careful and valuable document. It embodies commercial and statistical information which shows the results of our growth and progress, and discusses several subjects of high importance with discriminating judgment and penetration. What is said in regard to exportation of our products direct to the foreign market, instead of shipping them to San Francisco for export, is especially judicious and timely. It is impossible to overestimate the importance to Oregon of a policy which shall build up an independent and distinctive commerce. Nothing could be more against the interests of Oregon and Washington than the manipulation of their products in the interest of California operators. If direct exportation be superseded by low rates by steam from here to San Francisco, then when opposition on this route ceases, or combination is effected, one or the other of which is sure to happen in time, our producers will not only suffer from exactions, but will be absolutely without power to help themselves.

Suggestive prominence is given in this report to the importance of improving the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers. This is a matter really too little considered among us. Yet it is vital to the continuance and development of a system of independent commerce. It is a subject which ought to be pressed in Congress with an urgency which its importance deserves, but which never yet has been rightly appreciated.

The authors of the report consider our prospects of securing railroad connection as far off as ever. We fear this is only too true; indeed there is too much reason to believe there is smaller prospect now than seemed to be presented a year ago. The case of the Northern Pacific may now be looked on as almost hopeless. Its grant pretty certainly never can be renewed unless the Texas Pacific subsidy be allowed; and the general sentiment against subsidies of cash or bonds renders the prospects of the Texas Pacific extremely doubtful. The whole situation as to other railway schemes is set forth in the following suggestive and comprehensive sentence: "The Salt Lake enterprise, equally with the Winnemucca proposed road, depends for existence on the Union and Central Pacific companies, who, it is apparent, are not disposed to give Oregon the desired connection until they see that the Northern Pacific or some other road has assurance of success."

According to the Chicago Railway Age, the number of railways sold under foreclosure during the first six months of the year is twenty-eight. While these twenty-eight companies have been wiped out of existence, to be succeeded by others on a much smaller capital basis, the same fate has been rapidly overtaking a number of others. The number of roads placed in the hands of receivers in the six months named is fourteen. The capital invested in the roads against which foreclosure proceedings have been commenced and those for which receivers have been appointed is $292,986,700, covering 3,712 miles of rail. This represents a cost of nearly $80,000 per mile, and of course is, to a large extent, fictitious. The sooner the old hulks are cleared out of the way, however, the better for the people at large. The prosperity of the country is so largely dependent upon its facilities for travel and transportation that any measures calculated to put the railroad business upon a sound basis will be hailed with satisfaction.

INJUSTICE OF USURY LAWS.

The press of the state is discussing the question of laws to regulate interest on money. Several journals have spoken on the subject with a clear perception of its principles. The following from the Hillsboro Independent is good:

"A Subscriber" said in the last week's Independent that the state should regulate interest on money because "justice demands it," if for no other reason. On the contrary, justice demands that the state should let it alone. The state taxes money in the hands of the people (and unjustly about double that of any other property) and that is all the right she has over private property. The state has the right to condemn private property for public use, but not for private use, as she does wrongfully do in regulating (?) the interest on money lent, and those who prate of liberty and grow eloquent over the American eagle should be the last to advocate such unwarrantable assumption on the part of the government with the private and indefeasible rights of the citizen. The state has no more right, in justice, to regulate the price of wheat or rents than interest on money, not a whit. If a man lends money on good paper for 10 per cent. per annum, or on indifferent or bad paper for 24 or 50 per cent., it is no more the business of the state, or any one else, than it would be with the farmer who sells his wheat for $1 a bushel to one man, and $1 25 or $1 50 to another, just as the market or the necessities of the individual affect the price. The rental of town property in this state is based upon a clear gain of 12 per cent, to insure which from 15 to 20 and 25 per cent. on the capital rented is charged. Or take land, which is more stable in its value than money even, and let its rental value be put at 8 per cent., which is the rate of gain of wealth in the United States. Now there is land in this county that can be bought for $40 per acre which produces from 25 to 40 bushels of wheat to the acre, and wheat has sold for the last two years at from 75 cents to $1 65 per bushel, or a profit of from 50 to 150 per cent. to the owner, and as land is rented here at one-third of the crop we find that the renter has made from 16 to 50 per cent. on his capital. So down with the bloated landholders! "But money," says our correspondent, "does not reproduce itself and cannot be eat or worn, and is wasted less by wear and tear than any other property." The same is more or less true of land; but land cannot be stolen or lost as money can, and is the safest property under the sun.

The man that lends money takes the risk of losing it, and who ought to be the judge of the value of that risk, himself or somebody else? We take it that the man who has property to sell and the man who wants to buy it are the only two men who have any right or business to determine its value, and the interfering legislature, or any other third person, to make the one sell it for less than he could get it otherwise is the robber. Demand and supply regulate the loanable value of money, as it does of all other commodities, and it is only the ignorance of legislatures that interferes with this just and healthful law of trade.

Campaign Literature.

The Washington Republican prints the following letter, which it says it has received from South Carolina:—

SIR: And so you fellows are squirming up north are you? We have you just where we want you. You gave the ballot to the damned niggers and now that we have utilized them to our advantage you mourn and refuse to be comforted. Verily have you nigger loving radicals been hoist by your own petard. You talk about overriding the state rights by taking some radicals from our jail who have murdered one of our best citizens. Just try that on will you? But you have no officers here who possess nerve enough to attempt any such thing. Will you use the army to enforce old Evarts' decree? Forty thousand confederate veterans will greet them when they come on any such unhallowed mission. We [illegible] to the union and will not again [illegible] to fight you Yankees, but when [illegible] is not pleasantness [illegible] in the union and [illegible] we will thrash [illegible] crack your whip and [illegible] "Now [illegible]," etc. Don't judge [illegible] Key, whose [illegible] horse [illegible], but remember that [illegible] Southerners, who will perish before we will [illegible] to dishonor.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 16, 1878.

CITY.

SNAG BOAT—NARROW ESCAPE.—The master of the snag boat reports a narrow escape of his boat while in tow of the steamer Ohio on the morning of the 9th inst. While trying to get over Keyser's rapids it was necessary to run a line on shore and make fast to a tree on the bank, at the time some men were standing near at hand, one of whom was supposed to be the owner of the land and who said he would charge five dollars for making a line fast to any of the trees; presuming he was joking, the line was tied and nothing more was thought of it for the time. The steamer and snag boat were then turned loose from the opposite shore below, to commence hauling over the rapids, when it was found that the line had been cast off, and the boats drifted below the rapids before another line could be got out. Assistant Engineer Habersham, who was on board, en route for Cape Foulweather, reports as follows: "The steamer and snag boat, lashed together, were lining over Keyser's rapids, three miles below Salem, the current running at the rate of four to five miles an hour, when the tow line was cast off. It was only by good fortune that both boats were not carried down on to Rice's rocks, at the foot of the rapid. Had this been done, or both would have been wrecked."

SUCCESSFUL CHURCH WORK.—The following is taken from a recent number of the New York Evangelist: The banner church of the west in Home Missions, is that of Portland, Oregon, Rev. A. L. Lindsley, D. D. Its contributions to Home Missions for the last year were $5,700. This ranks it third in the general assembly. Dr. John Hall's church heads the list with $29,260. Dr. Paxton's follows at $10,336; then comes Dr. Lindsley's church with $5,700. Thus one of our churches in the far northwest makes a larger cash contribution to the Board of Home Missions than all the Presbyterian churches of either of the great cities of Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, and Buffalo, or more than all the Presbyterian churches in any city of the United States, save New York and Philadelphia; or the one church in Portland, Oregon, contributes more for this object than all the churches in any one of twenty-five synods of the church. There are only eleven out of thirty-six synods whose churches contribute a larger cash collection to the board than this one church. During the year 82 have been added to the church. Dr. Lindsley is to be congratulated on his success in church work.

QUICK WORK.—On Friday morning about 1 o'clock the steamer Oregon backed into the U. S. dredge at St. Helens, breaking the spud (a piece of timber 16 inches square) short off under the dredge, and doing other serious damage. At daylight on Friday the machine and scows were towed to a safe anchorage near the foot of Sauvie's Island, all anchors and lines hauled in, and a thorough examination made of the damages. In the afternoon the tug came to Portland and reported all the facts; an order was at once given for a new spud, and a stick was taken from the water and sawed at Smith's mill by noon on Saturday; four carpenters worked steadily upon it, and it was ready and towed down to the dredge by early Monday morning. The work of repairs was at once commenced, and by Tuesday afternoon the dredge was again at work, a portion of the repairs going on while she was dredging. Col. W…son gives great credit to Mr. Bechan…, who is in charge of the dredge for the energy, skill and efficient manner in which he has pushed the repairs, as well as for his careful discharge of all his duties.

BURGLARS IN LIMBO.—Some days ago mention was made of an attempt to commit a burglary at a house of ill-repute on Yamhill street. Several valuable fur cloaks were taken from a room in the second story of the building, but the theft was timely discovered and the burglar was so closely pursued that the articles were recovered. However, the thief made good his escape. It was known that two persons were concerned in the burglary, and the police were on the alert for the culprits. A young man named Andy Dwyer, who was known to be the principal in the burglary, was arrested yesterday in Salem, and another young fellow named Pullen was arrested last evening in this city on the charge of being an accessory. Chief Besser took the express train yesterday for Salem and will arrive here to-day having Dwyer in custody. Both young men stand a good chance to reside under the state efficient service.

GOOD FOR OREGON!—The Anglo American Times of July 5th, speaking of the agricultural department of the Paris exposition, says: "A valuable portion of the exhibit has been contributed by the state of Oregon. The timber used for ship building, the samples of wheat and other products of Oregon soil, in addition to the salmon exported from the Columbia river, form an absorbing interest. These items will be referred to in a subsequent notice. Mr. Van Beurden is in charge of the Oregon exhibit, and is indefatigable in bringing out the salient features connected with it." We notice in a San Francisco exchange that Oregon had received a gold medal for wheat.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Walter Moffett, which took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his family, was very largely attended. The ceremonies were conducted under the direction of the members of Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F. The procession was headed by the members of Ellison Battalion No. 1, in full uniform. Delegations from the various fire companies were also in attendance, following the hearse came a long line of carriages, in which were seated the sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends. The remains were conveyed to Lone Fir Cemetery and laid peacefully to rest.

WHEAT.—We are shown some fine specimens of wheat heads from San Juan Island. One bunch of 34 heads is from a single stock and 20 from another. The heads are as fine as any we have seen and the grain is perfect. These were taken from the farm of Patrick Gorman. Another sample of 25 heads is from the farm of Joseph Sandwith. A count of some of the heads shows 95 large and plump grains in each one. All this is not notable for a wheat country like ours; but we are told that it astonishes people who never saw real wheat before. These specimens are collected by Rev. H. W. Stratton.

OREGON AHEAD.—Since the specimens shown us from San Juan, Mr. Stratton has brought us two stools of wheat, one with 22 and one with 35 heads. These were selected from a group of 9 stools which grew on the farm of J. H. Settlemire, near Woodburn station, O. & C. R. R. The 9 stools produced in all 224 heads, an average of nearly 25 heads from each grain. We doubt not even this could be exceeded, and invite our farmers to send their specimens or certified statements to this office.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—Capt. Kelly arrested a man named Dan Sullivan yesterday evening on a telegram from Astoria. He is now in durance vile. It is not known what he stole, no particulars being given. The charge preferred was larceny. An officer will probably arrive here this evening from Astoria to take charge of the prisoner. Sullivan has the appearance of being a tough customer.

SNAG BOAT—NARROW ESCAPE The master of the snag boat reports a narrow escape of his boat while in tow of the steamer Ohio on the morning of the 5th inst While trying to get over Keyser's rapids it was necessary to run a line on shore and make fast to a tree on the bank at the time some men were standing near at hand, one of whom was supposed to be the owner of the land and who said he would charge five dollars for making a line fast to any of the trees presuming he was joking the line was tied and nothing more was thought of it for the time The steamer and snag boat were then turned loose from the opposite shore below to commence hauling over the rapids when it was found that the line had been cast off and the boats drifted below the rapids before another line could be got out Assistant Engineer Habersham who was on board en route for Cape Foulweather reports as follows The steamer and snag boat lashed together were lining over Keyser's rapids three miles below Salem the current running at the rate of four to five miles an hour when the tow line was cast off It was only by good fortune that both boats were not carried down on to Race's rocks at the foot of the rapid Had this been done one or both would have been wrecked

SUCCESSFUL CHURCH WORK —The following is taken from a recent number of the New York Evangelist The banner church of the west in Home Missions is that of Portland Oregon, Rev A L Lindsley, D D Its contributions to Home Missions for the last year were $5,700 This ranks it third in the general assembly Dr John Hall's church heads the list with $29 200 Dr Paxton's follows at $10 336 then comes Dr Lindsley's church with $5 700 Thus one of our churches in the far northwest makes a larger cash contribution to the Board of Home Missions than all the Presbyterian churches of either of the great cities of Baltimore, Washington Pittsburg, Cincinnati St Louis, Chicago Cleveland, and Buffalo, or more than all the Presbyterian churches in any city of the United States, save New York and Philadelphia or the one church in Portland Oregon contributes more for this object than all the churches in any one of twenty five synods of the church There are only eleven out of the [illegible] six synods whose churches contribute a larger cash collection to the board than this one church During the year 82 have been added to the church. Dr Lindsley is to be congratulated on his success in church work

QUICK WORK —On Friday morning about 1 o clock the steamer Oregon backed into the U S dredge at St. Helens breaking the spud (a piece of timber 16 inches square) short off under the dredge, and doing other serious damage At daylight on Friday the machine and scows were towed to a safe anchorage near the foot of Sauvie's Island all anchors and lines hauled in and a thorough examination made of the damages In the afternoon the tug came to Portland and reported all the facts; an order was at once given for a new spud, and a stick was taken from the water and sawed at Smith's mill by noon on Saturday four carpenters worked steadily upon it, and it was ready and towed down to the dredge by early Monday morning. The work of repairs was at once commenced, and by Tuesday afternoon the dredge was again at work, a portion of the repairs going on while she was dredging Col Wilson gives great credit to Mr Bechanan, who is in charge of the dredge for the energy skill and efficient manner in which he has pushed the repairs, as well as for his careful discharge of all his duties.

BURGLARS IN LIMBO —Some days ago mention was made of an attempt to commit a burglary at a house of ill-repute on Yamhill street Several valuable fur cloaks were taken from a room in the second story of the building, but the theft was timely discovered and the burglar was so closely pursued that the articles were recovered. However the thief made good his escape It was known that two persons were concerned in the burglary, and the police were on the alert for the culprits. A young man named Andy Dwyer, who was known to be the principal in the burglary, was arrested yesterday in Salem and another young fellow named Pullen was arrested last evening in this city on the charge of being an accessory. Chief Besser took the express train yesterday for Salem and will arrive here to-day having Dwyer in custody Both young men stand a good chance to render the state efficient service

GOOD FOR OREGON!—The Anglo American Times of July 5th, speaking of the agricultural department of the Paris exposition, says "A valuable portion of the exhibit has been contributed by the state of Oregon The timber used for ship building, the samples of wheat and other products of Oregon soil, in addition to the salmon exported from the Columbia river, form an absorbing interest. These items will be referred to in a subsequent notice. Mr Van Beurden is in charge of the Oregon exhibit, and is indefatigable in bringing out the salient features connected with it" We notice in a San Francisco exchange that Oregon had received a gold medal for wheat.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Walter Moffett, which took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his family, was very largely attended The ceremonies were conducted under the direction of the members of Samaritan Lodge No 2 I O O F The procession was headed by the members of Ellison Battalion No 1, in full uniform Delegations from the various fire companies were also in attendance, Following the hearse came a long line of carriages in which were seated the sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends The remains were conveyed to Lone Fir Cemetery and laid peacefully to rest

WHEAT.—We are shown some fine specimens of wheat heads from San Juan island One bunch of 34 heads is from a single stock and 20 from another The heads are as fine as any we have seen and the grain is perfect These were taken from the farm of Patrick Gorman Another sample of 25 heads is from the farm of Joseph Sandwith A count of some of the heads shows 95 large and plump grains in each one All this is not notable for a wheat country like ours but we are told that it astonishes people who never saw real wheat before These specimens are collected by Rev H. W. Stratton

OREGON AHEAD —Since the specimens shown us from San Juan Mr Stratton has brought us two stools of wheat one with 22 and one with 35 heads These were selected from a group of 9 stools which grew on the farm of J H Settlemire near Woodburn a station O & C R R The 9 stools produced in all 224 heads an average of nearly 25 heads from each grain We doubt if even this could be exceeded, and invite our farmers to send their specimens or certified statements to this office

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY —Capt Kelly arrested a man named Dan Sullivan yesterday evening on a telegram from Astoria He is now in durance vile It is not known what he stole, no particulars being given The charge preferred was larceny An officer will probably arrive here this evening from Astoria to take charge of the prisoner Sullivan has the appearance of being [illegible]

Mr Wagner the person who was taken in charge Wednesday by the police on the charge of insanity was released yesterday morning and sent home His insanity was only temporary being caused by trouble He is all right now

Such nights were made for lovers
Who sit on the stoop and spoon
While on the scene with smile serene
Shines the effulgent moon
She leans upon his bosom
As the moon sinks in the west
Her downy cheek so smooth and sleek
Leaves powder on his vest

WRONGLY QUOTED.

A few weeks ago a lengthy article appeared in these columns entitled "Portland Twenty-Seven Years Ago" in which we published a verse of poetry The poem from which the stanza is taken consists of seven verses, and was written by Mr Nathan Pearcy and appeared in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN of May 7 1851 As the last line of the stanza was wrongly quoted, we republish it in correct form

Majestic Mount say why dost thou
Appear to look so gravely down
And when storms shroud thy hoary brow
Oh why dost thou so darkly frown
And oft in tones of thunder break
The silence deep of Oregon
Arousing with thine awful quake
The grizzly and the forest son

THE NEW CATHEDRAL

LAYING OF THE CORNER STONE OF THE NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH AT THE CORNER OF STARK AND THIRD STREETS—SOLEMN AND IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES ADDRESS BY FATHER GIBNEY LIST OF ARTICLES DEPOSITED

Yesterday the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was an important one in the history of the Catholic Church in the archdiocese of Oregon City Of all the festivals dedicated to the mother of God by the Catholic Church this is regarded as the greatest and most profound as it commemorates the assumption into heaven of Mary the mother of God to meet and remain for everlasting time with her Divine Son As the old frame cathedral which stood for so many years in an unpretentious and uncouth form on the site of the new structure was dedicated to Almighty God under the special patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary it was deemed proper that this important feast should be the chosen one to bless the temple which is now being erected for the service of God under the continued patronage of His blessed mother The Church of the Immaculate Conception witnessed the growth of Catholicity in this city from a few numbers until the numbers who daily and weekly assembled within her shrine could no longer find room in the primitive building to offer their prayers and attend to Divine service Enlargements and additions were every few years found insufficient to accommodate the increasing Catholic population and at length it was found to be an absolute necessity that steps should be taken to build a cathedral which would not only accommodate the members of that denomination but be an honor to the divine service for which it is designed and a token of the zeal and fervor of his grace Archbishop F N Blanchet the reverend clergy and the laity of the archdiocese If we were to judge from the concourse of interested participants and spectators who yesterday were assembled at the ceremony of laying the corner stone and blessing of the foundation of this projected edifice we might safely surmise that it will not be found any too large for the needs of the Catholic community at the present time

At half past three o clock in the afternoon the St Vincent de Paul and Father Mathew Societies formed in line at their hall on Stark street, and headed by the Northwestern Band, marched down Third street to Ash down Ash to First, and were there joined by the Ancient Order of Hibernians The procession then marched back to Third and Stark streets when the ceremonies were immediately begun The Father Mathew Society and the Ancient Order of Hibernians numbering in all about 80 men elegantly arrayed with bright and glittering sashes, presented a fine appearance The St Vincent de Paul Society were in plain citizens dress and displayed no sign whatever of an organization Their charitable deeds however will remain as a sufficient sign to mark their ever untiring works of mercy and strength

As the clergy formed into line we noticed at their head the aged form of His Grace Archbishop Blanchet, who seemed fully able to appreciate the change he has witnessed in the growth and prosperity of his field of labor He was followed by the Very Rev J F Fierens, V G, Very Rev Father Younger of the Diocese of Nesqualy, and the Revs Fathers Gibney Verhaag, Orth, Vermeersch Brondel and Macken Several other Catholic Clergymen were also present but took no part in the ceremony Captain Joseph R Wiley acted as Marshal with Messrs M Hogan P J Kelly and J Finnen as Aids

At the time advertised the programme was commenced by a beautiful instrumental air The Chapel from Kreutzer by the Northwestern Band, followed by a grand chorus Glory be to God on High from Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsis Deo" The chorus consisted of a number of volunteer voices and the Cathedral choir under the leadership of Mr W H Kinross whose ability in conducting such affairs is acknowledged to be unexcelled The following is the programme as carried out

1 Music by Band—"The Chapel"
2 Procession from the church to the cross erected where the main altar will be placed in the new cathedral
Grand chorus Glory to God —Mozart
4 Music by Band— Soldiers Farewell
5 Procession to corner stone
6 Sermon by Rev P F Gibney
7 Blessing and placing the corner stone
8 Recital of the Litany of the Saints
9 Antiphon by Cathedral choir
10 Collection of offerings
11 Music by Band— The Day of the Lord
12 Miserere, by Cathedral choir
13 Antiphon,
14 Chorus
15 Blessing of the foundation
16 Finale by the Band

The sermon by Rev P F Gibney occupied near an hour in delivery In the commencement he paid a touching tribute to Archbishop Blanchet's zeal in laboring so long and fruitfully in furthering the progress of his faith in the distant northwest He then explained the mission of the priesthood and spoke at length of many subjects of particular interest to the denomination which he specially addressed His language was well chosen and delivered with a fervor and eloquence rarely listened to and he engaged the earnest attention of all who came within the sound of his voice.

The following is the inscription on one side of the stone

CURA ET LABORE
Ad modum
Rev J F Fierens V G

And on the front part of the stone

In the year of our Lord 1878 August 15th on the Feast of the Assumption of the blessed Virgin Mary the corner stone of this cathedral erected to the supreme most merciful and one God in three divine persons and dedicated to the honor and name of the blessed Virgin Mary immaculate was blessed and laid with solemn rite by the most reverend Archbishop F N Blanchet being the first year of the pontificate of the happily and gloriously reigning Pope Leo XIII being the thirty third year of the episcopacy of the aforesaid most reverend F N Blanchet the first governing bishop and archbishop of Oregon being the fifteenth year of very reverend Father J F Fierens V G's pastorage who together with Rev B Orth attends to this cathedral under the presidency of Rutherford Burchard Hayes S F Chadwick being acting governor of the state of Oregon and W W Thayer the recently elected Wm S Newbury mayor of Portland and the architect, P Heurne of San Francisco Cal The reverend missionaries who are in the ministry of this archdiocese Messrs Vincent McCullough and Martin contractors for stone foundation [illegible] Sturdevant and [illegible] for brick work Michael Phelan [illegible] carpenter work

A REBUKE

By the Judges to Albert Weber for publishing a falsehood:

"WE, THE UNDERSIGNED members of the Jury of Group XXV a, the Centennial Exhibition, Philadelphia 1876 do hereby certify that the following is the true basis of our recommendation for the award to Mr Albert Weber, of New York viz.

"For sympathetic pure and rich tone, combined with greatest power, as shown in a [illegible] and Piano of large dimensions These three styles grand square and upright pianos show intelligence and solidity in their construction a pliant and easy touch which at the same time answers promptly to its requirements together with excellence of workmanship

We moreover declare that the following report advertised by Mr Albert Weber as "official" and with our names attached thereto viz For sympathetic pure and rich tone combined with greatest power as shown in three styles grand square and upright pianos which show intelligence and solidity in their construction a pliant and easy touch which at the same time answers promptly to its requirements together with excellence of workmanship" has never been made sanctioned or signed by the group of Jurors certain stated qualities found in a "grand piano of large dimensions," exhibited by Mr Albert Weber were wanting in his parlor grand square and upright pianos

To the report advertised by Mr Weber as "official" the names of the group of Jurors have never been signed and if it has been so changed as advertised by him, it has been done subsequently and after the Jury had dispersed, and without the authority of the group of Jurors (Signed)

TO THE PUBLIC.

There is nothing so well calculated to put the average reader out of humor as to commence an interesting article upon some able scientific discovery Indian war news etc etc full of interest and just as he happily persuades himself he is thoroughly infatuated with the subject striving with great effort to grasp it in all its bearings away goes the author and in his praise of some hair renewer that am or other just as the OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER LIVER and KIDNEY REGULATOR cannot be truthfully called a patent medicine (although we have our copyright to protect a [illegible] article being placed before the public) as the following account of its origin will show

For many years past hundreds of the best citizens of the city when troubled with dyspepsia loss of appetite irregularities of the liver and kidneys have called upon Mr PFUNDER at his Pharmacy that at Palace corner Ash and First streets and requested a compound that would build their system up In each and every case there was this comparatively unknown remedy given and its results were of such satisfactory nature and so highly recommended by those who used it that the purely vegetable compound made from Oregon herbs and root created a large demand for itself and upon its own merits It was then known as Pfunder's Purifier Desiring to benefit the community at large Mr Pfunder conceived the idea of placing this great Regulator before the people and what has been the result The sale of the Oregon Blood Purifier has already become greater than that of any medicine manufactured on the Pacific Coast

[illegible] it has been weighed fairly in the balance and not found wanting

Washington Independent George Johns' boy, of Dilley fell from a tree a distance of 60 feet without breaking or displacing a limb though he was injured internally Dr Bowlby was called and at last accounts the boy was doing well How is that for high? Why didn't he fall 100 feet and kill himself and beat the rest of the fellows who have been falling 30 40 and 60 feet in this county without furnishing a single healthy corpse for our columns This thing is growing monotonous

The following particulars are furnished of the death of Wm Kerns at Spanish Gulch Grant county They were ground sluicing out a slide in their race when a heavy cave occurred A H Grath Samuel Kerns and Jo Fraites were thrown down and slightly injured, and but for the timely assistance of Mr James Lasswell and his men the two first mentioned persons would have been drowned as the water in the flume was completely dammed and rising on them They were buried in mud and water to their shoulders and could not help themselves Their escape was almost a miracle William Kerns was buried from his chin down as he stood with his body resting against the side of the bank his right breast was crushed and his neck dislocated The remains were laid away to rest in the old Camp Watson graveyard

A PLAIN ISSUE.

A Card to the Public

From October 27 1876—fourteen days before the close of the Centennial exhibition—when all the machinery for investigation was at hand to this day Weber has published the following figures of the judges on pianos—given to him then and there

ORIGINAL FIGURES

WEBER

	Bristow	Kupka	Oliver	Schiedmayer
Tone	6	6	6	6
Equality	6	6	6	5
Quality	6	6	6	6
Touch	6	6	6	6
	24	24	24	23—95

Total—95 Out of a possible 96

Now, Messrs Steinway publish fourteen months after the close of the Centennial a different set of figures on grand Piano etc. They admit publicly that while all the rest of the piano manufacturers have quietly attended to their business they have traveled thousands of miles made two ocean voyages and carried on an immense correspondence covering thirteen months persuading confusing manipulating the judges with a slightly different result.

If Messrs Steinway or their agent here will prove that the above are not the correct original figures as handed in by the judges before the close of the Exhibition we will give to the poor of Portland our check for $500 Also if Messrs Steinway or their agents at Salem Albany The Dalles or Walla Walla will prove that their original figures were not 91 out of a possible 96 which is four less than Weber received we will give to the poor of each of the above cities our check for $100

The fact of the matter is the Weber piano has become by far too popular to suit the interest of that competing firm and they now perceive that their former prestige is fading fast before the growing popularity of Mr Weber, a d every possible means is being resorted to in order to crush him

Finally we would add that while it is unsafe to trust an unscrupulous concern like that of Messrs Steinway whose questionable practices and manipulations at exhibitions have become notorious and whom we believe are capable of doing any thing except sticking to the truth yet we still have so much faith in the power of truth that we are loth to believe that even they would perjure themselves and dare to come forward and swear that Weber's figures, 95 as published throughout the world before the close of the exhibition are wrong

Does any sane man or woman believe it possible that Messrs Steinway would wait thirteen months after the close of the Centennial to correct Weber's statement of figures when it could have been done while the commission itself was in Philadelphia in session in thirteen hours, or surely in thirteen days? NEVER

Weber's Award signed by all the Judges reads as follows

For sympathetic pure and rich tone combined with greatest power as shown in three styles Grand Square and Upright Pianos which show intelligence and solidity in construction a pliant and easy touch which at the same time answers promptly to its requirements together with excellence of workmanship

The above Diploma signed by every member of the Commission and Judges on Pianos can be seen at Weber's warerooms corner Fifth Avenue and 16th street New York at any time

Notwithstanding the desperate effort which is being made to injure the reputation of the only rival they are afraid of the Weber Piano will still continue to be the favorite with the public in the concert room and the parlor

The Wheat Crops.

We are in receipt to-day of the following dispatch concerning the acreage and yield of wheat in a very considerable portion of the northwest the great grain growing section of the United States east of the Rocky mountains The report will be of interest as showing the general supply

CHICAGO Aug 15—The Daily Commercial Bulletin will to morrow issue an estimate of the spring wheat crop of the northwest Returns have been received from 261 counties in Iowa, Illinois Wisconsin Minnesota Nebraska Kansas Missouri and Dakota The aggregate acreage in the counties reported is 6 834 000 against 4,399 000 last year—an increase of 34,80 per cent The estimated acreage for these states on the basis of these returns is 9,920,000 against 7,158,000 last year The aggregate yield is estimated at 121 60,000 bushels against 127,423,000 bushels last year—a decrease of 5,750 000 bushels, notwithstanding the greatly increased acreage. The states of Iowa Minnesota and Wisconsin show a decreased production of 18,000 000 bushels, at the same time showing an increased acreage of 2 058 000 The average yield per acre is reported at 12¼ bushels, against 17 80 100ths bushels last year The quality in Wisconsin Minnesota and Iowa is generally reported poorer and about one grade lower while that in the other states exhibits little change from that of last year

The crop in California is reported to be turning out fully as well as expected, and confidence is expressed that the surplus in that state will be all of 650,000 tons.

From the Commercial Reporter of even date herewith, we gather some items of the harvest in our own state A correspondent at Cresswell writes as follows

The crops are turning out much better than last year, as the grain is full and plump The acreage is equal to last year H C Hyde of Dilly writes the wheat crop yield is not as good as last year, about two thirds as much, but there is an increased acreage R J Lancefield & Son of Amity says in regard to crops it is our opinion that the acreage sown in in this vicinity this year, is about the same as last year. The fall wheat is turning out about 22 bushels to the acre John W McGrew, Perrydale, says that the acreage seeded this year in that vicinity is ten per cent more than last year, and as far as can be guessed at that the yield to the acre will be about 20 per cent less to the acre. A Herman Forest Grove, says that the wheat and oat crops are turning out better than expected some time back, and thinks that the surplus will equal last year. A leading merchant at McMinnville says In regard to wheat I will state that in this neighborhood there was considerable less fall wheat than last year but there is a good deal more spring wheat this year. As far as have heard the yield per acre is much better than had been expected I will give you some samples which I heard of B F Fuller harvested nearly 1,500 bushels from 40 acres, J W Rogers, 2 400 bushels from 80 acres Cal Wallace went nearly 30 bushels to the acre J S Hibbs went upwards of 36 bushels to the acre one lot I heard of yielded 42 bushels to the acre Have not heard of any spring wheat being threshed yet, but think that will not yield as well, especially the late sown.

Domestic Produce.

The activity noticed in this department of trade early in the week has increased rather than diminished, and the receipts of seasonable products have been quite large and dealers have been fairly busy for the early date. In wheat the movement toward the seaboard has averaged over 60,000 centals per day, a good deal of which has been, or will be sent to San Francisco, prices there being regarded as rather more satisfactory to holders than at this point Some choice lots of Oregon wheat are reported to have sold there at $1 70@1 75 per cental The quotations in the local market have not materially changed since our last weekly review, the tendency now being toward greater firmness, and very choice lots quotable at $1 57½ per cental, which must, however, not be taken as current rates. The placing of cargoes on board has hardly begun in any important volume, though several vessels at hand are under charter and a very considerable quantity will be moved in this way within the next fortnight. Prices in the European market appear by our latest telegraphic advices to be well sustained, and holders here seem confident that the bottom has been reached at least until the great wheat centers have been stocked up by new imports.

Flour is in moderate supply, and dealers seem but little inclined to accumulate larger stocks in the face of the incoming wheat crop and a more definite turn in the market, or at least until it can be seen whether the reported heavy crop will send prices downward or the reports prove exaggerated and rates assume a firm if not upward tendency Sales have been affected at $4 75 to $5 per bbl for good country standard brands Temporarily the inquiry is not very great and holders being indisposed to accept any reduction the transactions are confined to supplying the local trade and a few shipments to the north and to San Francisco Oats have been received in fair quantities for the past week and prices are easy at 40@45 cts per bushel. Some shipments are being made to San Francisco, where the demand is fair but active, with buyers somewhat backward, expecting a decline when the new product begins to come forward a little more freely Mill feed is in fair supply for the season, with no unusual inquiry Prices are steady at the figures last quoted Hay of the new crop is in the market and prices vary somewhat according to quality, best baled timothy selling at about $10 per ton on the wharf Inferior or loose quotable at $8 50 to $5, Potatoes are very plentiful and prices have gone down to what before the rise was considered a reasonable figure but is called low now. The quotations are 50 to 60 cts per bushel from first hands.

Provisions, are abundant, and it seems as if holders here had enough to supply the home demand for the whole season while a very large surplus is reported as still held in the interior Present prices are low and the outlook for holders and producers not hopeful Dairy products are quiet, and except choice lots there is some difficulty found in placing any considerable quantities of butter and much of that coming to the market is not of good quality A great improvement in the making of this commodity is necessary to give Oregon butter a first class standing in outside markets Eggs have generally sold during the week at 22½c per dozen, but are scarcer and higher to-day selling at 21@25c

The wool market is still active and prices last quoted have been firmly adhered to with an occasional advance of 1@2c per ℔ on the part of buyers for good lots The receipts have been quite large during the week much of which has been stored for shipment or held for an upward turn in the home market.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

DR BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

DR BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

NEW ORLEANS Aug 16—The Times editorially says Some remarkable features, that characterized the fever in its incipiency continue to characterize it now and in what may be regarded in its matured and developed form Fully 60 per cent of the deaths is foreigners or unacclimated people, and fully 75 per cent of the remainder is of children. Its very rarely that we notice the death of an adult born here or who had lived here a length of time and of whom it can be said he or she received even moderate attention. It is true that a good many native adults have been affected, but the attack in nearly every instance has been light and manageable, and but for the scare would hardly have excited comment. So far it is distinctly the children's year

Decision in regard to R. R. Lands.

WASHINGTON, Aug 15—The secretary of the interior has decided that the grant of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company attaches to lands acquired under the Sisselton and Wahpeton treaty outside of the reservation, they having been acquired prior to the definite location of the road, and that the settlement of claims upon the granted sections were excluded by the sixth section of the act of July 2d 1864, making a grant to the company The decision determines the right to a large tract in Dakota. The Hay land settlement on these lands was in violation of law and treaty obligations, the Indian title not having been extinguished at the time of settlement thereon and the withdrawal of the company having preceded the extinguishment of the Indian titles

The Wheat Crops.

We are in receipt to-day of the following dispatch concerning the acreage and yield of wheat in a very considerable portion of the northwest the great grain growing section of the United States east of the Rocky mountains The report will be of interest as showing the general supply

CHICAGO Aug 15—The Daily Commercial Bulletin will to-morrow issue an estimate of the spring wheat crop of the northwest Returns have been received from 261 counties in Iowa, Illinois Wisconsin Minnesota Nebraska Kansas Missouri and Dakota The aggregate acreage in the counties reported is 5 344 000 against 4,699 000 last year—an increase of 34,80 per cent The estimated acreage for these states on the basis of these returns is 9,930,000, against 7 158,000 last year The aggregate yield is estimated at 121 665,000 bushels against 127 423,000 bushels last year—a decrease of 5,750 000 bushels, notwithstanding the greatly increased acreage The states of Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin show a decreased production of 18,000 000 bushels, at the same time showing an increased acreage of 1 0.8 000 The average yield per acre is reported at 12¼ bushels, against 17 80 100ths bushels last year The quality in Wisconsin Minnesota and Iowa is generally reported poorer and about one grade lower, while that in the other states exhibits little change from that of last year

The crop in California is reported to be turning out fully as well as expected, and confidence is expressed that the surplus in that state will be all of 650,000 tons.

From the Commercial Reporter of even date here with, we gather some items of the harvest in our own state A correspondent at Creswell writes as follows

The crops are turning out much better than last year, as the grain is full and plump The acreage is equal to last year H C Hyde of Dilly writes the wheat crop yield is not as good as last year about two thirds as much but there is an increased acreage. R J Lancefield & Son of Amity, says in regard to crops it is our opinion that the acreage sown in in this vicinity this year is about the same as last year The fall wheat is turning out about 22 bushels to the acre John W McGrew Perrydale, says that the acreage seeded this year in that vicinity is ten per cent more than last year and as far as can be guessed at that the yield to the acre will be about 20 per cent less to the acre. A Herman, Forest Grove says that the wheat and oat crops are turning out better than expected some time back and thinks that the surplus will equal last year. A leading merchant at McMinnville says In regard to wheat I will state that in this neighborhood there was considerable less fall wheat than last year but there is a good deal more spring wheat this year. As far as I have heard the yield per acre is much better than had been expected I will give you some samples which I heard of B F. Fuller harvested nearly 4,500 bushels from 40 acres J W Rogers, 2 400 bushels from 80 acres Cal Wallace went nearly 30 bushels to the acre J S. Hibbs went upwards of 35 bushels to the acre one lot I heard of yielded 22 bushels to the acre Have not heard of any spring wheat being threshed yet, but think that will not yield as well, especially the late sown.

Domestic Produce.

The activity noticed in this department of trade early in the week has increased rather than diminished, and the receipts of seasonable products have been quite large and dealers have been fairly busy for the early date. In wheat the movement toward the seaboard has averaged over 60,000 centals per day, a good deal of which has been, or will be sent to San Francisco, prices there being regarded as rather more satisfactory to holders than at this point Some choice lots of Oregon wheat are reported to have sold there at $1 70@1 75 per cental The quotations in the local market have not materially changed since our last weekly review, the tendency now being toward greater firmness, and very choice lots quotable at $1 67½ per cental, which must, however, not be taken as current rates. The placing of cargoes on board has hardly begun in any important volume, though several vessels at hand are under charter and a very considerable quantity will be moved in this way with in the next fortnight Prices in the European market appear by our latest telegraphic advices, to be well sustained, and holders here seem confident that the bottom has been reached, at least until the great wheat centers have been stocked up by new imports.

Flour is in moderate supply, and dealers seem but little inclined to accumulate larger stocks in the face of the incoming wheat crop and a more definite turn in the market, or at least until it can be seen whether the reported heavy crop will send prices downward, or the reports prove exaggerated and rates assume a firm if not upward tendency Sales have been affected at $4 75 to $5 per bbl for good country standard brands Temporarily the inquiry is not very great and holders being indisposed to accept any reduction, the transactions are confined to supplying the local trade and a few shipments to the north and to San Francisco. Oats have been received in fair quantities for the past week and prices are easy at 40@45 cts per bushel Some shipments are being made to San Francisco, where the demand is fair but active, with buyers somewhat backward expecting a decline when the new product begins to come forward a little more freely. Mill feed is in fair supply for the season, with no unusual inquiry Prices are steady at the figures last quoted. Hay of the new crop is in the market and prices vary somewhat according to quality, best baled timothy selling at about $10 per ton on the wharf Inferior or loose quotable at $8 50 to $9, Potatoes are very plentiful and prices have gone down to what before the rise was considered a reasonable figure but is called low now. The quotations are 50 to 60 cts per bushel from first hands.

Provisions, are abundant and it seems as if holders here had enough to supply the home demand for the whole season while a very large surplus is reported as still held in the interior, Present prices are low, and the outlook for holders and producers not hopeful Dairy products are quiet, and except choice lots there is some difficulty found in placing any considerable quantities of butter and much of that coming to the market is not of good quality A great improvement in the making of this commodity is necessary to give Oregon butter a first class standing in outside markets Eggs have generally sold during the week at 27½c per dozen, but are scarcer and higher to-day, selling at 24@25c

The wool market is still active, and prices last quoted have been firmly adhered to, with an occasional advance of 1@2c per lb on the part of buyers for good lots The receipts have been quite large during the week, much of which has been stored for shipment or held for an upward turn in the home market.

There are ten or twelve new cases There was great excitement during the day, many flying the town The population is now reduced to not over 300 Total deaths 45 The number of cases down is estimated at 150.
